THE OFFICIAL BRAND OF

Ellen Tracy's philosophy: The perfect balance between youthful attitude & grown-up glamour. With a rich heritage of celebrating style since 1949, we believe style comes not only from what you wear, but what you do, who you are and who you aspire to be.

Ellen Tracy designs for the woman who lives in the moment, not for the moment. Our attitude is confident, expressive, and polished while our style is statement making. Our promise is to always remain flattering & feminine. The collection is polished, inspired and dynamic, as is the woman who wears it. She is the 21st-century woman who sees change as a good thing, and is focused not so much on having it all, as on living it all. Her confidence inspires our confidence so we never shy away from color.
